

Child Safe Sport

SHORT REVIEW TEMPLATE

This template has been developed for use by Victorian sporting organisations of all sizes that are taking steps to meet Victoria's Child Safe Standards. Each child safe item within the review template aims to provide a basis for your organisation to continue developing a child safe culture. When comfortable with this review template, move on to our Comprehensive Review Template. It is important to remember that completing this review does not guarantee compliance with the Standards.

Why undertake a Child Safe Sport Review?

It is vital that the leaders in your sporting organisation have a clear understanding of how child safe the environment is. This child safe sport review template has been developed to assist sporting organisations at all levels identify the initial key items required to start their child safe sport journey.

Where do we start?

1. Develop a Sub-Committee or Working Group

It is recommended that the process of implementing the Standards is overseen by a sub-committee or working group in order to share the workload and provide an opportunity for a range of individuals to get involved. For example, you may have a member who is a teacher or police officer and they may be willing to provide their experience and insight into the process to strengthen your approach.

2. Complete the Review Template

This short review template addresses some of the elements your organisation should have in place to develop a sound foundation for a child safe culture. We recommend that multiple people complete the review, either as a collective or individually. This provides a more rounded assessment of your current position. You may consider individuals representing the following areas of your organisation to complete the review:

- Committee/Board member
- Staff (from all levels)
- Coach
- Official/Umpire
- Volunteer
- Participant
- Parent
- Child/Youth (with the approval and assistance of their guardian).

3. Using the Template

Once you have confirmed who will be contributing to the review, have them complete the template by:

1. Identifying to what degree your organisation meets each child safe item.
2. List the reasons for your response. Be specific and include key documents, links and events wherever possible. This helps the individual compiling the results to gain a full understanding of where your organisation is at.
3. Identify how your organisation can strengthen its approach to child safe sport by including opportunities and comments in the final column.

Child Safe Item	Yes / No / Partially	Reason for Response	Opportunities & Comments
1.1. Cultural Awareness training is undertaken by all Board, Staff and volunteers	Partially	Last training completed 2019. Some staff turnover since then.	Investigate providers and schedule for Q2

1. To what degree does your organisation meet the child safe item?

2. Include reasons for your response. Be specific. Add documents, links and event details etc.

3. Add your thoughts on how child safety can be strengthened or what needs to change.

4. Where to from here?

Once the template has been completed:

1. If you have had multiple people complete the template, consolidate the responses into one document, making sure you discuss as a group the reason for your responses.
2. Identify actions required for each of the child safe items and use this information to develop your Action Plan.
3. Prioritise your action plan. Assign timelines and a person responsible for each task. It's ok to work through things in smaller, bite-sized chunks. Completing your action plan will take time.
4. Make child safe sport a standing agenda item at meetings to ensure you regularly review your progress and check in with each other.
5. Report on your progress to members on a regular basis. This could be through updates at meetings, social media posts, newsletter articles or a post on your website.
6. Undertake this (or a similar) review again in 12 months time or progress to our comprehensive review to expand your child safe work.

Remember:

- Developing a child safe culture is not a one-off exercise. This requires ongoing effort and commitment from everyone in your organisation to make sport as safe and fun for children and young people as possible.
- It is a legal requirement for all organisations providing a service to children within Victoria.
- Completing this checklist does not make you compliant with the Standards.
