

Publicity Network October 2022 Newsletter

marketing@croquetvic.asn.au

WANTED

Mallet News Victoria is in urgent need of an Editor/s to continue the fine work of Mallet Sports. It is a monthly digital produced magazine.

Mallet News Victoria (previously Malletsports) is an important tool for communicating across Croquet Victoria. It has been a monthly digest focusing on tournaments and club activities. Outgoing editors of July issue suggest it is time to review both content and frequency. Could go to 6 issues a year?

Design and computer skills are needed. An updated format is available.

Time commitment: low to medium throughout year; focused work pre-production (2 or 3 days per issue).

Wanted – More members for M & P

To promote the sport of Croquet across Victoria & southern New South Wales, support publicity efforts at club & regional level & to cooperate with other Croquet State Associations & Croquet Australia in promoting croquet nationally. Bring innovative ideas!

Season Opening day but no play

Macedon Ranges Croquet Club held their season open day on Wednesday 7th September 2022. In attendance was Macedon Rangers Shire Mayor Councillor Jennifer Anderson who open proceeding with the Acknowledgment of Country. James Sheawick from Bendigo Bank Gisborne also attended and showed great interest in the game. Club Champion Heather Dawn ran the first hoop for the season. Unfortunately, club members couldn't play as the courts are still saturated due to heavy rain this winter. Club Members provide light refreshments for morning tea.
